ORAL JUDGEMENT

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. This revision application was admitted by this court on 6th September, 1995 and interim relief in terms of para- 7(b) was granted. Para-7(b) reads as under:

pending admission, hearing and final disposal of this petition, to issue ad-interim order staying the operation and implementation of the order passed on injunction application No. 121 of 1994.

3. So meaning thereby, this interim relief granted by this court continues for all these years. The appellate court has granted the interim relief in favour of the plaintiff- respondent No.1, which order has been stayed by this court. The respondents are also not present to oppose this revision application. The suit out of which this revision application is arising is also of the year 1993.

4. So the interest of justice will be served in case this revision application is disposed of in terms that the trial court shall decide the suit itself finally within a period of one year from the date of receipt of writ of this order or certified copy thereof, whichever is earlier and till the decision of the suit, the interim relief granted by this court shall continue. Rule and civil revision application stand disposed of accordingly with liberty to the respondent No.1 for revival of this revision application in case of difficulty.
